“Jesus revolutionized the meaning of death. He did so with his teaching, above all by facing death himself. ‘Dying he destroyed death,’ says the liturgy of the Easter season. ... In this way, the Son of God wished to share our human condition to the end, to open it to hope. Ultimately, he was born to be able to die and in this way to free us from the slavery of death. ... Since then, death is no longer the same: It has been deprived, so to speak, of its ‘venom.’ The love of God, acting in Jesus, has given new meaning to the whole of man's existence and in this way, has also transformed death.”

— Benedict XVI, “On the Meaning of Death,” Address to midday Angelus audience, St. Peter’s Square, Nov. 5, 2006.

The Family Life Office of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia presents this Bereavement Directory to help those who are grieving the loss of a loved one, as well as to provide a resource for those involved in ministering to the bereaved. It lists many support groups offered by parishes, hospitals, hospices, funeral homes, and other organizations in the Philadelphia area.

Bereavement Group Directory

Groups in this directory are categorized by county as follows:

Parish/Cluster
Catholic Hospitals
Secular Hospitals
Funeral Homes
Community Secular Groups

This publication is offered as an informational resource, and should not be understood as an official endorsement by the Family Life Office. All programs are locally sponsored by the listed parish, institution, or organization, and responsibility for these programs rests with the respective sponsors.

Please send any information on programs not listed in the directory, or changes on current listings, to the Family Life Office for possible inclusion in the next edition.

Last updated November 2010.
