

The Pontifical Council for Healthcare Workers
presents:

A Conference for Healthcare Workers and
Medical Professionals

Saturday, February 11, 2012
World Day for the Sick
to be held at
Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary
100 East Wynnewood Road
Wynnewood, PA 19096

- 11:00 A.M. Keynote address by Archbishop Zygmunt Zimowski, President of the Pontifical Council
Reflections on the message of Pope Benedict for the 2012 World Day for the Sick
- Lunch will be available afterwards in the Seminary cafeteria. ▫
- 1:15 P.M. Lecture by Dr. John Haas, President of the National Catholic Bioethics Center
“God Heals All Infirmities: The Power of the Sacraments in the Church’s Healing Ministry”
- 2:00 P.M. Lecture by Mr. Ron Rak, President and CEO of Saint Peter’s Healthcare System, New Brunswick “Bearing witness to God in a Healthcare Setting”
- 2:45 P.M. Lecture by Dr. Nayan Kothari, Associate Dean of Education at Drexel University
“Thou Shall Not Kill: perspective of a Jain Physician”
- 3:30 P.M. Mass in the Seminary Chapel for participants of the Conference
Celebrant: Most Reverend Zygmunt Zimowski
Homilist: Most Reverend Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M. Cap. Archbishop of Philadelphia

Admittance to the Conference is free of charge.

Lunch may be purchased at the Seminary cafeteria the day of the Conference for $5.00.

To register, please call Ms. Connie Scharff at 215-587-0504 or email cscharff@adphila.org.